

Little Chubby Boy

Medium Build

Little chubby boy
With a scooby doo shirt
Making people laugh
So they can't hurt you
One day that charisma will come in handy

Little chubby boy
At the pool party
Take off your shirt
Let everybody see
That you, you are not ashamed of your body

Chubby boy
Striking out
Baseball's not your thing
And it's still not now
But one day you'll learn to run and learn to feel healthy

You have everything that you could ever need
You are all the things that you wanted to be
I know you don't recognize me but I know where you're at

So relax
Don't lie
You got it

Little chubby boy
With your heart all crushed
One day those girls
Will give a fuck about you
And you can say no and work on your music

Little chubby boy
With a cheap guitar
One day that things
Gonna take you far away
And buy you a house and spoil your parents

You have everything that you could ever need
You are all the things that you wanted to be
I know you don't recognize me but I know where you're at

So relax
Don't lie
Read books
Be nice
There'll be days that you just want to die
But you got it
