

Say Hi

Medium Build

When you were young, you moved to Long Beach
I had a crush, but I didn't say anything

Baby boy moved back, and you got new friends
And, y'all treat every single night like the weekend

And do you ever think about
Late at night, when the bar closes
Coming by my house to

Say Hi
Stay the night
Oh, and break my heart
To say goodbye

Ran into your sister at the liquor store
Said, "I don't know who the fuck I am anymore!"

Got a big fat tab at the Time Out Lounge
And I got half a mind to send a text and
See if you'll be down to

Say Hi
Stay the night
Oh, and break my heart
When you say goodbye

You can change your name
Put some money in the bank
But, down at the bar
You're trying really hard
To look like you're having fun

Now, I know that nothing's the same, but!
Maybe, if you came over, nothing woulda changed

You could Say Hi!
Say goodnight
Oh, and break my heart
When you say goodbye

Stay the night-ight, baby, stay the night
Ooh, stay the night-ight, stay the night-ight
Baby, stay the night-ight, baby, stay the night
