

Triple Marathon

Medium Build

I've been making lists of things to do when you come back to town

I've been getting super jealous of the people you're around
And I wish that I could breathe you in and loosen up my grip
But not knowing when I'll see you next has got me acting cringe

Does it make sense
How I need it?
When I'm blackout
You're a lighthouse
And it's so basic
I just gotta face it
Does it make sense
How I need it?
Tell me that it makes sense
Tell me that it makes sense

You been getting really good at telling me when I get dumb
It's so weird to feel like someone knows me, I guess this is love
And I'm sorry I was such a cunt, I don't know what to do
I would run a triple marathon just to be close to you

Does it make sense
How I need it?
When I'm blackout
You're a lighthouse
And it's so basic
I just gotta face it
Does it make sense
How I need it?
Tell me that it makes sense
Tell me that it makes sense
