Meet Me @ The Altar

Hold my hand
Through all the bad things, you seem
A little better since you now believe
I won't ever drop you like you are old news
Clear the air
What has been going on?
Yeah for a while you've been feeling wrong
Just hoping that life would feel like it used to

Chase down that crown
You don't deserve to feel so down
I guarantee
I'm there for ya, there for ya

I'll always be right here
When everything's unclear
Please promise you won't let go
Hold on til the morning
Forget all the scoring
Your flowers will finally grow

I'll always be right here
When everything's unclear
Please promise you won't let go
Hold on til the morning
Forget all the scoring
Your garden will finally grow
And I needed you to know

Spent your days
Glued to your telephone
And hoped that maybe you'd feel less alone
And find yourself through a post again
But it's
All the same
Except that you're not alone
Because in me you'll always have a home
I'll drop it all and come running,
Just say when

Chase down that crown
You don't deserve to feel so down
I know you'll see I

Will always be right here
When everything's unclear
Please promise you won't let go
Hold on til the morning
Forget all the scoring
Your flowers will finally grow

When everything's unclear

And I needed you to know

I'll never forget
When you came to my doorstep
With tears on your shirt
Yeah I swear I'll do
Anything for you cause it
Hurts to see you hurt

I'll always be right here

I'll always be right here
When everything's unclear
Please promise you won't let go
