

King Of Everything

Meet Me @ The Altar

Why does (why does)
Why does it always gotta be like that?
And how come (how come)
You never ever ever cut me some slack?

If I could just get in my car without it falling apart
Pay all of my bills without it costing an arm
If I could live another life, even just for a day
If one damn thing would finally go my way

I'd be fine, I'd be fine
I'd start over in a blink
I'd feel like, I'd feel like
I'm the king of everything

I'd be fine, I'd be fine
I'd start over in a blink
I'd feel like, I'd feel like
I'm the king of everything

Why does (why does)
Why does it always gotta be like that? (Ugh)
And how come (how come)
Nobody ever ever has my back? (Seriously? Oh my gosh)

If I could just get in my car without it falling apart
Pay all of my bills without it costing an arm
If I could live another life, even just for a day
If one damn thing would finally go my way

I'd be fine, I'd be fine
I'd start over in a blink
I'd feel like, I'd feel like
I'm the king of everything

I'd be fine, I'd be fine
I'd start over in a blink
I'd feel like, I'd feel like
I'm the king of everything
