Meet Me @ The Altar

Said you were done complaining
But you keep opening your mouth
Last year said you were changing
No difference between then and now

I go through all the same things too
It sucks, it's true
But I give it a shot, nothing to lose

Sometimes I dive in the deep end
With no time to breathe in
Am I
Designed to push through the panic
That keeps me from standing?
Least I

Try

Try not to show I'm anxious
I crack a smile like I'm all good
I bottle up my feelings
Don't share 'em but I know I should

Give it a shot, nothing to lose

Sometimes I dive in the deep end
