

Going Away

Meg & Dia

Please don't forget me,
I'm going away
I'm taking a taxi to Kentucky
Where they don't need to know all about me,
I just need to feel safe.
I've got a thousand sweaters and shoes and paintings to hide.
Skeletons in my bed.
Don't ask where I'm going.

I'm going away
I'm going my way
Finally it's my time
to be lonely, and lost, unloved and I can't wait.
Don't forget what I said.
don't forget my letter.
Every night I pray for you.
I don't got no religion,
Isn't it that something
I'll miss those days?

I saved that bottle,
It's now 10 years aged
I've got some bibles I could sell for money
And a pair of fresh shaved legs
Won't you baby come with me,
I've got extra space
In my car, in my heart, in my mind
Look there's the passenger seat
by the postcards you gave (Don't know where I'm going)

I'm going away
I'm going my way
Finally it's my time
To be lonely, and lost, unloved and I can't wait.
Don't forget what I said,
Don't forget my letter
Every night I pray you
I don't got no religion
Isn't that something
I'll miss those days?

But he said, "Slow down, slow down
Think it over, we've all got wretched closets
But silly girl pride kills more than aids lately."
I said, "Come on
I've thought it over
I don't wanna die here
I have no desire to get married"

I can't race the others anymore,
No, I must learn to race myself.

I'm going away,
I'm going my way.
Finally it's my time
To be lonely, and lost, unloved and I can't wait
Please forget what I said (I'll find my way)

Please forget my letter.
Every night I pray for you,
I don't got a religion
Isn't that something
I'll miss those days?

I, I'm not going halfway (i'll find my way)
I, I
Every night I pray for you,
Don't believe in heaven
Or that it could be a happy place.
I, I'm going away.
