

Just Like You

Meg Donnelly

('Cause I'm only human, cruisin' this world all on my own
I keep movin', provin' to myself that you have to grow
'Cause it's never too late to learn from all of those mistakes
Been through it too, just like you)

Used to spend so much time
Wonderin' why they could take me for granted
I can't describe all the pain I would feel inside
Now I know it helped me grow, na, na, na, na, na
No more tears on my pillow (No tears)
No more breakin' myself to keep someone else whole
Used to trip every day and night
But now I just live my life

'Cause I'm only human, cruisin' this world all on my own
I keep movin', provin' to myself that you have to grow
'Cause it's never too late to learn from all of those mistakes
I've been through it too, just like you
Just like you

Yo, I ain't finna judge you
Past is the past, really nothin' we could undo
Take you to my hood, I could show you all the blocks I would run through Young, dumb, up in his slum
And don't forget about the young love, gettin' my fun
I should've treated her better, but I diminished her trust
And I'm just keepin' it real
And honestly, I'm likin' how you makin' me feel
And when I'm in your city (Na, na, na, na, na), I just hope we could chill
And just forget about the old days, old ways, and old flames
One-nights with no-names
You can be you, it's OK
You ain't gotta smile always, I'mma be a whole stack
We ain't ever had much, but we got love we could stack up
We could have a fresh start, doin' it the right way
We deserve a love thing, yeah

'Cause I'm only human, cruisin' this world all on my own
I keep movin', provin' to myself that you have to grow (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
'Cause it's never too late (Yeah, yeah) to learn from all of those mistakes
I've been through it too, just like you
Just like you

Life's a mystery filled with lessons (Yeah)
From all the mistakes I've made (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
But with all the growin' pains (Uh), I fly high (Ay)
While they all stay the same (Yeah)
Keep movin'; not easy, but I do it
Not perfect (Yeah, yeah), but I'm better than I was yesterday (Uh)

'Cause I'm only human, cruisin' this world all on my own (Ay)
I keep movin', provin' to myself that you have to grow (Uh)
'Cause it's never (Ay) too late to learn from all of those mistakes
I've been through it too, just like you
Just like you, just like you
Just like you, just like you
Just like you, na, na, na, na, na
