

Last Laugh

Meg Myers

When they sold your soul to the highest bidder
I broke down and cried
Now I'm older and the road is clearer
I got nothing left to fight
Turn the light on call out to someone
Thought I saw your face

When they sold your soul to the highest bidder
I broke down and cried

Don't want to end up alone, so I'm on my knees
Don't ever let go, my love

We are the lovers, the dreamers
You won't take us alive, believers
Into the night, follow the sound
We'll hold it down
We'll be holding it down
We'll have the last laugh
We'll have the last
