

The End

Megan Hilty

Wow!

That was sad

Right?

That was really, really sad

"Oh, I've had a fulfilling life, I love my kids"

"I love my wife! So sad!"

Do you ever wish that was what we had?

What, ear hair you can see from space?

No, an ending

I'd give it all to have an ending

I'd give it all to say goodbye

To finish up our plot

Whether life made sense or not

To say, "The show is over, folks," then die

We'd step into our light

Go out in a blaze of glory

And finally find out if there was a moral to our story

The choir would sing

They'd roll the drums

We'd tie the title in and see what death becomes

If that was our show, that's how I'd like to go

God, if only we could see the end!

What do you want to do tomorrow, Mad?

Oh, I don't care, what do you want to do, Hel?

Don't say I didn't!
