

Home Is You

Megan & Liz

Favorite person in the room no matter where we go
Highs and lows and inside jokes and secrets no one knows
Love doesn't need a reason and time doesn't mean a thing
As long as I have got you here with me

Time zones, different roads
If I ever lose my way, I'm not alone
One will do but we're better off as two
'Cause home isn't a place, home is you

Read our minds and waste our time and laugh 'til we can't breathe
Steal her clothes but I always know she can't stay mad at me
I know that things are changing and I know they can't stay the same
She's the reason for who I am today

Time zones, different roads
If I ever lose my faith, I'm not alone
One will do but we're better off as two
'Cause home isn't a place, home is you

If I ever lose my way, I know where to run to Home isn't a place, home is you

Home isn't a place, home is you
