

That Ghost

Megan & Liz

Creaking floorboards and lights that turn off on their own

Mmmm

The paranormal you can move away from is easy

Mmmm

But not your memory

'Cause nothing haunts you like the hurt you've had

Words you've said that you couldn't get back

It's that one day, that someday you promised with somebody

Somebody else

You can cover it up, you can bury the past

Throw in the dirt, but it won't last

'Cause one day, yeah, someday, you're gonna be with somebody

And that ghost is gonna be coming back

Gonna be coming back

I hear the voices, I hear them talking in my head

All the things we said

And maybe I'm losing it (maybe I'm losing it)

I'm awake and I'm in bed with him (I'm awake and I'm in bed with him)

He's everywhere I go

'Cause it's your memory

'Cause nothing haunts you like the hurt you've had

Words you've said that you couldn't get back

It's that one day, that someday you promised with somebody

Somebody else

You can cover it up, you can bury the past

Throw in the dirt, but it won't last

'Cause one day, yeah, someday, you're gonna be with somebody

And that ghost is gonna be coming back

Gonna be coming back

I've had enough, just let me love again

Ooh

I've had enough, just let me love again

'Cause nothing haunts you like the hurt you've had

Words you've said that you couldn't get back

It's that one day, that someday you promised with somebody

Somebody else

You can cover it up, you can bury the past

Throw in the dirt, but it won't last

'Cause one day, yeah, someday, you're gonna be with somebody

And that ghost is gonna be coming back

Gonna be coming back

Oh, 'cause one day, yeah, someday, you're gonna be with somebody

And that ghost is gonna be coming back

Gonna be coming back
