

How Many Times

Megan McKenna

Crying, fighting
Too scared to be alone 'cause it's frightening
Breaking, running
The sinking feeling, yeah it's always got me hiding
Falling for the same mistakes again
Hoping, praying
That I can love like I loved you

Why do I give all I have
And the fairytale always ends
And I'm burning photographs
Again, again

How many times is my heart gonna break
Gonna give love away
To someone that wasn't worth it
How many times will they not prioritise
Me above the small things
'Cause they think I don't deserve it
I keep on holding on
Forgetting all that you did wrong (Oh, I)
How many times will I hear those lies
And not say goodbye
Oh, oh how many times
Oh, oh how many times
Oh, oh how many times

Driving, through the night and
When am I ever gonna learn
It's a long road, full of heartbreak
And I know I shouldn't take this turn

Why do I give all I have
And the fairytale always ends
And I'm burning photographs
Again, again

How many times is my heart gonna break
Gonna give love away
To someone that wasn't worth it
How many times will they not prioritise
Me above the small things
'Cause they think I don't deserve it
I keep on holding on
Forgetting all that you did wrong (Oh, I)
How many times will I hear those lies
And not say goodbye
Oh, oh how many times

(How many times is my heart gonna break
Gonna give love away
To someone that wasn't worth it
How many times will they not prioritise
Me above the small things
'Cause they think I don't deserve it)

How many times is my heart gonna break

Gonna give love away
To someone that wasn't worth it
How many times will they not prioritise
Me above the small things
'Cause they think I don't deserve it
I keep on holding on
Forgetting all that you did wrong (Oh, I)
How many times will I hear those lies
And not say goodbye
Oh, oh how many times
Oh, oh how many times
Oh, oh how many times
