

Sinking Boats

Megan McKenna

When the flowers that you give to me
Outlive your apologies
And sorry starts to feel like you rehearsed it
When you see the suitcase on the floor
And that don't scare you anymore
And you can't remember when it last felt perfect

Coz we're lost in a storm and you run outta life lines
Far from the shore and the waves getting so high
Can't give no more, can't give no more than this

There it is Finally
I can see
The two of us
Are sinking boats
Losing hope
There it is Finally
I can see
The two of us
Are sinking boats
In the ocean
So light a flare and down we go
Sink with me
Sink with me

It's the little things that grind me down
When you don't phone and you stay out
And there's an empty seat at family dinner
It's strange how I just realised
How many times a year I cry
And just how many times you've been forgiven

There it is Finally
I can see
The two of us
Are sinking boats
Losing hope
There it is Finally
I can see
The two of us
Are sinking boats
In the ocean
So light a flare and down we go
Sink with me
Sink with me
