

The Good, The Bad & The Bitch

Megan McKenna

I can be sweet as pie
Any flavour you like
I can cook and clean and be the perfect wife
Pin curled hair and fitted dress
I think five steps ahead just like a game of chess

Don't mess me around coz you've met your match
I could make your life hell
I could bake a bad batch
I've been there and done that played those games
I can smell havoc bout a mile away

Don't try to fool me
Don't take advantage of my love
Hell have no fury
Like a woman scorned all fired up

You can be handsome dirty filthy rich
Devilish charm right words on your lips
Fire in bed I don't give a shit
If you mess with my heart
I can be the good, the bad and the bitch

I'm not here to be your mother
Tuck you in at night
Don't need another man child baby in my life
So don't weigh me down why can't you understand
The only weight I need is a big rock on my hand

Don't try to fool me
Don't take advantage of my love
Hell have no fury
Like a woman scorned all fired up

You can be handsome dirty filthy rich
Devilish charm right words on your lips
Fire in bed I don't give a shit
If you mess with my heart
I can be the good, the bad and the bitch
I can be the bitch...

I can be the good, the bad and the bitch (b-i-t-c-h)...

You can be handsome dirty filthy rich
Devilish charm right words on your lips
Fire in bed I don't give a shit
If you mess with my heart
You can be an all night turbo charge sex machine
With the biggest size feet that I've ever seen
Have the whole world wrapped around your fingers tips
But if you mess with my heart
I can be the good, the bad and the bitch
I can be the bitch
