

Too Late

Megan McKenna

My mother always told me "Hold your head up high and tell the truth"

So when you're feeding me lies late at night and you're keeping me waiting under my own roof

I put myself first 'cause now I know what I deserve
And it ain't you

Another day and you're faded
You stripped me off my pride, I'm feeling vacant
And now I'm miles away from love
The stars are closer than the two of us
You took my heart and made it break
I'm sorry, it's too late
(Too late, it's too late)
(Too late, it's too late)
It's too late
(Too late, it's too late)
(Too late, it's too late)

I never felt so lonely as when I was laying by your side (Beside, beside, beside)
I started to think what the hell am I doing, why do I choose to waste my time?
So I put myself first 'cause now I know what I deserve
And it ain't you

Another day and you're faded
You stripped me off my pride, I'm feeling vacant
And now I'm miles away from love
The stars are closer than the two of us
You took my heart and made it break
I'm sorry, it's too late
(Too late, it's too late)
(Too late, it's too late)
It's too late
(Too late, it's too late)
(Too late, it's too late)
It's too late
