

I Love Me

Megan Moroney

It's a known fact, a statistic
I look good in red lipstick
I'm immune to stones and sticks
'Cause my ex boyfriend's a you know what
I try to be a lady
But this mouth that the good Lord gave me
Could be considered inappropriate
I don't know when to close it
It gets me into trouble most times

I love me so you don't have to
Don't believe nobody asked you
For your unwanted opinion
It's my world and you're just in it
If I'm not your cup of tea
Go find you something else to drink
I'm not for everyone, so if I'm not for you
I love me so you don't have to

I'm a pistol made of roses
I don't keep up with the Joneses
Whiskey burn with a sugar rim
Honey, you can't water me down
Can try to go and change me
But this fire that my Mama gave me
Keeps me lightin' thing up until they're smokin' too much
And gets me into trouble most times

I love me so you don't have to
Don't believe nobody asked you
For your unwanted opinion
It's my world and you're just in it
If I'm not your cup of tea
Go find you something else to drink
I'm not for everyone, so if I'm not for you
I love me so you don't have to
I love me

I don't need your validation
If it's this song or me you're hatin'
Feel free to change the station
Let everyone know how bad your taste is

I love me so you don't have to
Don't believe nobody asked you
For your unwanted opinion
It's my world and you're just in it
If I'm not your cup of tea
Go find you something else to drink
I'm not for everyone, so if I'm not for you
I love me so you don't have to

I love me
I love me so you don't have to
