

Wonder

Megan Moroney

It's 3 AM
You're up, phone by your pillow again
But you play it cool under cold sheets
Even though that he said he'd
Let you know when he got home
Where's he at? Girl, you don't know
You're scared he'll think that you're crazy
So you drown in the what-ifs and maybes

Maybe, baby, he ain't the one
And maybe, baby, you need someone

That's gonna say a place and time
And then show up a little early
Gonna give you all his heart
A little more when you're feelin' lonely
You won't have to ask him if he loves you
The right one'll come along and show you
It ain't always gotta be lightnin' and thunder
He won't make you wonder

You take him back
'Cause he said he's done actin' like that
He always says what you're needin'
Just to keep you from leavin'
Even though, deep down you know
He ain't the one, but you can't let him go
You're scared to start it all over
You'd rather flashback to mid October

Maybe, baby, he ain't the one
And maybe, baby, you need someone

That's gonna say a place and time
And then show up a little early
Gonna give you all his heart
A little more when you're feelin' lonely
You won't have to ask him if he loves you
The right one'll come along and show you
It ain't always gotta be lightnin' and thunder
He won't make you wonder
You shouldn't have to wonder

He won't make you wonder
And, honey, I know you do
I drove down the same old road
'Til I stopped to find somebody new

He says a place and a time
And then shows up a little early
He gives me all his heart
Even more when I'm feelin' lonely
I never ask him if he loves me
The right one came along and showed me
It ain't always gotta be lightnin' and thunder
He don't make me wonder
Girl, I know you wonder
