

You Had To Be There

Megan Moroney

Five girls in the mirror puttin' makeup on There's boys downstairs playin' drinkin' songs
Circled up 'round a hand-me-down guitar
Singin', "Oh-oh-oh"

Brand new boots that we're 'bout to break in Bought some nosebleed seats, summer money well spent
Parkin' lot, take a shot, steal a kiss
And we're ready to go

I see the lights, I hear the band
Feels like the whole world's in our hands
Soakin' it up, breathin' it in
One day we'll say, "Remember when"
We were so alive
I swear that night there was magic in the air
You had to be there

Seven years later, got a different point of view
Got a sound check in ten and my own dressin' room
Goin' 'round the world with the king of no shoes
Singin', "Oh-oh-oh"

Can't tell you how fast time's gonna fly by
Keep your heart on your sleeve, and your chin held high
Baby, hold on tight
And don't let go

I see the lights, I hear the band
Feels like the whole world's in our hands
Soakin' it up, breathin' it in
One day we'll say, "Remember when"
We were so alive
I swear that night there was magic in the air
You had to be there
You had to be there
Oh, you had to be there

We made the memories, we've got the pictures
But you had to be there
You can't fake it, that kind of feelin'
You had to be there

I see the lights, I hear the band
Feels like the whole world's in our hands
Soakin' it up, breathin' it in
One day we'll say, "Remember when"
We were so alive
I swear that night there was magic in the air
We were so alive
I swear that night there was magic in the air
You had to be there
You had to be there
Oh, you had to be there
You had to be there

And oh, we were there

We were there
We were there
You had to be there
