

Breaking Records

Meghan Patrick

Prince was playing when you picked me up
I was in a little white cotton dress
He was singing Little Red Corvette
Dancing in the kitchen when you stole that kiss
That's when Petty was learning to fly
Just like Springsteen, I was on fire

Falling in love in the light of a Panasonic
Now I don't wanna hear it, I just wanna forget it so...

Tonight I'm breaking records
Every song, every did-me-wrong
Is going up against the wall
Goodbye never sounded better
In pieces on the ground
But, baby, I ain't breaking down
I'm breaking records
Yeah, I'm breaking records

Had 'em all in a cardboard box, open the closet
But I kept on taking them out
Giving them one more spin around
Every time that I played 'em
It was like pouring salt on the cut
But it was finally time to put a jagged line
Right through the middle of us

Tonight I'm breaking records
Every song, every did-me-wrong
Is going up against the wall
Goodbye never sounded better
In pieces on the ground
But, baby, I ain't breaking down
I'm breaking records
Yeah, I'm breaking records

Yeah I'm falling in love in the lie of a Panasonic
Now I don't wanna hear it, I just wanna forget it so...

Tonight I'm breaking records
Every song, every did-me-wrong
Is going up against the wall
Goodbye never sounded better
In pieces on the ground
But, baby, I ain't breaking down
I'm breaking records
Yeah, I'm breaking records
Yeah, I'm breaking records
Yeah, I'm breaking records