

Iron Man

Meghan Patrick

He built the house that I grew up in
Cut a trail to the creek, made us learn how to swim
If you take patience and nerves of steel
Weld it together, it's a hell of a shield
Covered up what a kid shouldn't have to feel

Forged in fire by a steady hand
Like everything he made, I don't break, I don't bend
He's the reason I can when I think I can't
Yeah the best of him made me who I am
I'm the daughter of an iron man
(Ooo, ooo)

Up by four, getting home by five
Never had a doubt that we'd get by
He held up the sky when it was falling
When I need an answer, he's the one I'm calling

Forged in fire by a steady hand
Like everything he made, I don't break, I don't bend
He's the reason I can when I think I can't
Yeah the best of him made me who I am
I'm the daughter of an iron man
(Ooo, ooo)

Self-made, selfless, top-shelf bourbon
Showed me the blues when my heart was hurting
Winning feels better when you gotta earn it
He said, "you can catch a dream
When you put the work in"

Forged in fire by a steady hand
Like everything he made, I don't break, I don't bend
He's the reason I can when I think I can't
Yeah the best of him made me who I am
I'm the daughter of an iron man
(Ooo, ooo)

And I thank God I came from him
I'm the daughter of an iron man
