

She's No Good For Me

Meghan Patrick

She showed up last night
After 1:00 am
Smoking Marlboro Lights
Running up my tab again
She passed out, makeup on
Stained my pillow case
Woke up, she was gone
Now I'm left with the mess she made

Yeah, I remember why we had to take a break

She's a damn good time, but she ends the night
Crying on the bathroom floor
She's whiskey strong 'til the whiskey's gone
Then she's knocking on her ex's door
It's so hard to, but I have to leave
The girl I used to be
She's no good for me

When I see pictures of
Her at twenty-two
Reckless, young, and dumb
Thought that she was bulletproof

She broke hearts like glass
She broke mine the worst
I know it ends bad
Every time I go back to her

Crossing over bridges that I know I need to burn

She's a damn good time, but she ends the night
Crying on the bathroom floor
She's whiskey strong 'til the whiskey's gone
Then she's knocking on her ex's door
It's so hard to, but I have to leave
The girl I used to be
She's no good for me
Oh, no

When I look in the mirror
Sometimes I still see her
Yeah, I guess I'm still Learning how to leave her

She's a damn good time, but she ends the night
Crying on the bathroom floor
She's whiskey strong 'til the whiskey's gone
Then she's knocking on her ex's door
It's so hard to, but I have to leave
The girl I used to be
She's no good for me
She's no good for me
Oh-oh
