

Stoned Alone

Meghan Patrick

I think we might be growing apart
Lately I've been finding it hard to make you happy
Nothin' makes you happy anymore
I can't lie, you're kinda killing my vibe
Been bitchin' and moanin'
All night just tryin' to pick a fight
But I ain't gonna bite, nah

'Cause I'd rather be stoned alone
Instead of with you and your bad attitude
Yeah, on my own
Protecting my peace
Livin' in a blue dream
'Cause every time you come around
You bring my high down
So just leave me and my cloud of smoke
'Cause I'd rather be stoned alone

You always wanna go to the bar
But I just want to look at the stars
And talk about UFOs, Bermuda triangles
Play some rock n' roll
And if that don't sound like a good time
That's fine

'Cause I'd rather be stoned alone
Instead of with you and your bad attitude
Yeah, on my own
Protecting my peace
Livin' in a blue dream
'Cause every time you come around
You bring my high down
So just leave me and my cloud of smoke
'Cause I'd rather be stoned alone

Maybe you'd be happier if you just took a tone

I'd rather be stoned alone
Instead of with you and your bad attitude
On my own
Protecting my peace
Livin' in a blue dream
'Cause every time you come around
You bring my high down
So just leave me and my cloud of smoke
'Cause I'd rather be stoned alone
So just leave me and my cloud of smoke
'Cause I'd rather be stoned alone

C'mon, baby, come and smoke a little weed
Promise it'll make you happy, baby
Baby, please
Just smoke some weed
It's what you need
