

Underrated

Meghan Patrick

He's a B-side, it never got to the radio
But makes you feel something real coming through the stereo
He's your first truck, every one you've saved up for A little rust, ain't worth much, but he's all yours
He's a steady hand, he's a hidden gem
Never thought I'd fall for him

My baby's so underrated
In a plain white tee and his blue jeans faded
My best kept secret, he's my all-time favorite
He don't put on a show so I'm the only one who knows it
My baby's so, my baby's so underrated

He's your first kiss, one you didn't get right
On the front porch when your daddy's home so it couldn't last a ll night
He's a nice guy, who ain't gonna finish last He's tough as hell, looks that kill but wouldn't tell you if yo u asked
He don't show off, yeah he shows up
Hey if you ask me, it's obvious

My baby's so underrated
In a plain white tee and his blue jeans faded
My best kept secret, he's my all-time favorite
He don't put on a show so I'm the only one who knows it
My baby's so, my baby's so underrated
Oh, my baby's so, my baby's so underrated

He don't oversell himself
So no one knows and I won't tell

My baby's so underrated
In a plain white tee and his blue jeans faded
My best kept secret, he's my all-time favorite
He don't put on a show so I'm the only one who knows it
My baby's so, my baby's so underrated
Oh, my baby's so, my baby's so underrated
Underrated, underrated
