

Mr. Almost

Meghan Trainor

Tryna force puzzle piece
Not a perfect fit for me
But they told me give it time
Maybe Cupid missed my chest
'Cause I keep looking left
And you ain't missed your right

You're so sweet when we're kissing
But there's something I'm missing
Baby there's no chemistry,
Yeah, we look good on paper
You can call me a hater,
But let's talk on and see!

Hey, no you ain't the perfect match for me
But you were so close my Mr. Almost
Hope it didn't come off as a tease
You were so close my Mr. Almost

All my girls say lock him down,
Guys like him don't come around
Go and pick your wedding rings
Yeah, my mom thinks you're legit
But I'm way too young for this
So I'ma tell you what I think
Yeah, you are so sweet when we're kissing
But there's something I'm missing
Baby there's no chemistry,
Yeah, we look good on paper
You can call me a hater,
But let's talk on and see!

Hey, no you ain't the perfect match for me
But you were so close my Mr. Almost
Hope it didn't come off as a tease
You were so close my Mr. Almost

I know that this could be alarming
But you can't go and call me boo
I'm looking for my prince charming
So close my Mr. Almost
No you ain't the perfect match for me
So close my Mr. Almost

Mr. Almost a billionaire
Mr. Almost yours till you almost caught feelings there
Where? Right there at the Bluebird
When we were singing them songs we wrote
This is what you said and I quote
"I love you baby baby so much, you the one
Ain't nobody better than you up under the sun"
This the part where I run
This the part where I dip
But I still love them heels

Hey, no you ain't the perfect match for me
But you were so close my Mr. Almost

I hope it didn't come off as a tease
You were so close my Mr. Almost

I know that this could be alarming
But you can't go and call me boo
I'm looking for my prince charming
So close my Mr. Almost
No you ain't the perfect match for me
So close my Mr. Almost
