

I Can't Tell

Meiko

When you walk in the room
You light it up
I can't deny my love for you
Taking deep breaths I say to myself that we're all alone no one else will come around
And I can't help it
I can't help how I feel
And I can't tell you
I can't tell if it's real
Wondering how I should keep it low
I don't wanna go and make you run away
I look to the sky
I cannot lie
My knees get weak overtime you pass me by
And I can't help it
I can't help how I feel
And I can't tell you
I can't tell if it's real
You'll never know
That I love you so
And everywhere you go, my heart follows
It follows...
I can't help it
I can't help how I feel
And I can't tell you
I can't tell if it's real
