

I'm Done

Meiko

I'm alone in the dark
I take care of my heart
But I know that it's starting to break
All along I've been strong
I've been writing my wrongs
I am slowly adjusting my fate

You try to tell me that you wanna stay
Pack it up and then you go away
But I know that you'll come back some day
Tell me tell me that you wanna stay

Everything that we had
All the good and the bad
It is slowly starting to fade
I fall to pieces
Maybe I don't need this
And I don't know how much I can take

You try to tell me that you wanna stay
Pack it up and then you go away
But I know that you'll come back some day
Tell me tell me that you wanna stay

I want you to know
I'm ready to let you go
When I'm on my own
I'm done

I'm done
I'm done
I'm done
I'm done

I fall to pieces
Maybe I don't need this
I fall to pieces
Maybe I don't need this
I fall to pieces
Maybe I don't need this
I fall to pieces
Maybe I don't need this

I'm alone in the dark
I take care of my heart
But I know that it's starting to break
