Meiko

All I know
Is out the window
My hands are up
In the air
And you say I remind
You of the good times
But I can't be a fool, unaware

'Cause I know he is waiting for me
Just like I did before
And we, we will never, never be free
From feeling like we need more
Feeling like we need more

So what am I supposed to do
Pack my bags and run away with you
Well I can't be a fool for you again

'Cause I know he is waiting for me
Just like I did before
And we, we will never, never be free
From feeling like we need more
Feeling like we need more
'Cause I keep feeling like I need more
Feeling like we need more

I keep feeling
I keep feeling
I keep feeling
I keep feeling

And I know he is waiting for me
Just like I did before
