

Chasing Butterflies

Meja

I can't hide what I'm thinking but I'll try just to be polite someone should really tell you something honestly you are out of line

cuz there you go
chasing butterflies
only wasting time
let them go
like a drifting cloud
chasing butterflies
let them go

why do words make us strangers what I say you'll always deny every time is like starting over different names but the same old lie

cuz there you go
chasing butterflies
only wasting time
let them go
like a drifting cloud
chasing butterflies
let them go

and I see you reach for diamonds in the sky and I'm wondering what is wrong with you?

chasing butterflies
only wasting time
let them go
like a drifting cloud
chasing butterflies

do what you want - I stopped trying do what you want - keep on flying do what you need - I don't even care
