

Dance Myself Alive

Meja

Every tiny cell in my body
Moves me to the rhythm of my core
I wake up slowly a little dizzy
Taken by the beauty of it all

Every nerve and every bone
Every flower fully grown
All that is and will become
My heart is ripped wide open

I'm gonna dance, dance, dance, dance myself alive
Dance, dance, dance myself alive

Even though I can't touch it I can feel it
Filling every corner of my soul
I'm whirling like a derwish into the open
Loosing what has held me back before

No more tears or scattered dreams
No more falling inbetween
When I love I set them free
My heart remains wide open

I'm gonna dance, dance, dance, dance myself alive
Dance, dance, dance myself alive
I'm gonna dance, dance, dance, dance myself alive
(I wanna be dancing, I wanna be dancing)
Dance, dance, dance myself alive
(I wanna be dancing, I wanna be dancing)

Love is a feeling I can't control
Love is a mystery to unfold
Love is the power that keeps my soul
Wide open
Love is a flower in your hand
Love is the thing I don't understand
Love is the power that keeps my soul
Wide open...

I'm gonna dance, dance, dance, dance, dance, dance, dance, dance...
