

Last Hours

Meja

you know what he is looking for faster, faster, more and more he's the man who'll crash n burn until the point of no return

I hope my baby's gonna come tonight
I hope my baby's gonna come tonight
I hope my baby's gonna come tonight and when he does I'm satisfied baby did not get to far I caught him in the cookie jar babys heart i wanna keep so I'll just put up with it, yeah yeah

I hope my baby's gonna come tonight
I hope my baby's gonna come tonight
I hope my baby's gonna come tonight
and when he does I'm satisfied

it's 3 o'clock in the morning still a few more hours to kill I'm awake with the dawning there's no clouds in my coffee there's only a song

I hope my baby's gonna come tonight
I hope my baby's gonna come tonight
I hope my baby's gonna come tonight
and when he does I'm satisfied

I never felt like this before
I never felt like this before im a fool i want more
still a few more hours to kill
still a few more hours to kill
still a few more hours to kill
still a few more hours to kill hope my babys gonna come tonight
still a few more hours to kill
