

Light in My Soul

Meja

(Light in my soul, put a little light in my soul, yeah yeah)

I been walking thru the fire
Fighting windmills alone
I been praying to every god
But there's nobody home

Its enough to drive me crazy
What the hell's going on
Doesn't matter where I turn
Everything just seems wrong

And when I'm lost in translation
The last train left the station
And the outside world has turned so cold
You make me feel so alive
Cause you put a little light in my soul

(Light in my soul, put a little light in my soul, yeah yeah)

And this world is getting smaller
Still we're oceans apart
Getting caught up in the mind
But forgetting the heart

And in a world of distraction
All I need is a fraction
Of the super powers that you hold
You make me feel so alive
Cause you put a little light in my soul

(Put a little light in my soul)
Put a little light in my soul
Put a little light, put a little light
Light in my soul

(Put a light in my soul)
Put a little light in my soul
Put a little light, put a little light
Light in my soul

Yeah yeah yeah...
(Light in my soul)

And when I'm lost in translation
The last train left the station
And the outside world has turned so cold
You make me feel so alive
Cause you put a little light in my soul

Yeah yeah yeah...
(Light in my soul)

...

Put a little light in, put a little light in, put a little light in my soul.
