

Red Light

Meja

Red light
Sentimental times
Moonstruck
By the purple skies
I feel your skin against my skin

I should take another train but this is going
I am going all the way
I should take another train but this is going
I am going all the way

Bright light
Playing tricks with time
Sweet lies
Is a bitter crime
That's when a sin is not a sin

I should take another train but this is going
I am going all the way
I should take another train but this is going
I am going all the way
