

Wake Up Call

Meja

I guess I have changed somehow Child like is just childish now something I didn't wanna see cause you meant the world to me

I think I finally get it you will never never give in to growing older
and when we were younger do you remember how we got along so much better always seemed to understand each other

Now that I see you and you say you'll try but nothing has changed in time and I'm done wondering why

And I don't wanna do this it's hard on me too it's hard on me too, but Somebody had to get it

we no longer
