

Ballad Of Forty Dollars

Mel Tillis

The man who preached the funeral said it really was a simple way to die

He laied to rest one afternoon and never opened up his eyes

They hired me and Fred and Joe to dig the grave and carry up some chairs

It took us seven hours and I guess we must've drunk a case of beer

I guess I oughta go and watch them put him down but I don't own the suit

And anyway when they start talkin' about the fire and hell well I get spooked

So I'll just sit here in my truck and act like I don't know him when they pass

Anyway when they're all through I've got to go to work and mow the grass

Here they come and who's that ridin' in that big ole shiny limousine

Look at all that chrome I do believe that's the sharpest thing I've seen

That must belong to his rich Uncle someone said he owned a big ole farm

When they get parked I'll mosey down and look it over that won't do no harm

Well that must be the widow in the car and would you take a look at that

That sure is a pretty dress you know some women do look good in black

He's not even in the ground and they say that his track is up for sale

They say she took it pretty hard but you can't tell too much behind a veil

Listen ain't that pretty when the bugler plays the military tap

I think that when you's in the war they always hired and played a song like that

Well here I am and there they go and I guess you'd just call it my bad luck

I hope he'll rest in peace but trouble is that fellow owes me f orty bucks
