

BATSHIT INTELLIGENCE

Melanie Martinez

Parasite man, what is your plan?
Claim you're the highest intelligence
Twist with your teeth
Meaty and raw
Tell me now, who is the savage here?
And if I could have a moment with you
I'd throw all your limbs down a laundry shoot
It wouldn't be cruel, just what you accrued
Pressure, it boils till smoke ensues

Rent is high and the taxes due
On a floating rock
Burning avenues
Where's the alien
Who can save us now?
Mother Nature screams
Death is guaranteed, I'll say it again
Burning away
Falling away
Dying away
I'll say it again!
Burning away
Falling away
Dying away
Say it again!

Heed to the warning
Feed them the potion
Wise are the tortured
Trees by the ocean
Keep your emotion
Lead with devotion
Kill the oppressor
Drunk on corruption

Bacteria
Propaganda
Lightning devices, designer drugs
Breeding the youth
Workers to foes
If anyone questions the status quo
Their bunkers and war
Is what we work for
Our feelings are numb and our pockets poor
And competition, it doesn't exist
They made it all up so we don't resist

Rent is high and the taxes due
On a floating rock
Burning avenues
Where's the alien
Who can save us now?
Mother Nature screams
Death is guaranteed, I'll say it again
Burning away
Falling away
Dying away

I'll say it again
Burning away
Falling away
Dying away
I'll say it again

Heed to the warning
Feed them the potion
Wise are the tortured
Trees by the ocean
Keep your emotion
Lead with devotion
Kill the oppressor
Drunk on corruption
