

Illusions

Melanie Martinez

Don't be so alarmed, it's like an IV to your arm
With morphine and you're feeling like you're going through with drawals
Rose-colored windows, cardboard-cut pictures
Addicted to fiction and the glamorous facades

Money is just an agreement
Fame was just giving them freedom
Beauty is what you believe in, it's not built to last

Tunnel vision, stars in your eyes
Cut the connection, you've been hypnotized
The world is such bullshit, so leave it behind
Kill your illusions, come back to life, oh, oh

Don't feel so ashamed even if the arrows were aimed At you, and you knew that no one even cared
No matter how cold they are, or what bullshit they tell you
You're brighter than a flashlight and you're better than them t oo

Power is just an illusion
Love is the only solution
Freedom is a state of mind, not bound by the past

Tunnel vision, stars in your eyes
Cut the connection, you've been hypnotized
The world is such bullshit, so leave it behind
Kill your illusions, come back to life, oh

Now the curtain's lifting
Reality is shifting
The colors are vivid and the truth is slowly revealing
Crying to them is not worth it
They will only pull the curtains
They will leave even desert you, but it's all in the past

Tunnel vision, stars in your eyes
Cut the connection, you've been hypnotized
The world is such bullshit, so leave it behind
Kill your illusions, come back to life, oh, oh
