

Test Me

Melanie Martinez

Ha, ha!
Wooh!

Hey God I'll be the jester, entertain ya to the best of My ability when I suffer, no fragility when I enter
Came here for a reason ah ah
So stop complaining
All have off seasons ah ah
It's not just a joke or a lesson to live through Every which way and second is a breakthrough

I'm mortal (ah ah ah)
Defected by this form (ah ah ah)
So I'd rather be tested by goddesses
Resting their heads up on
Pillows of all they have learned

I'm not to be forgotten
Drop your books when I walk in
Magic talks without talking
I make the most before the coffin

Born to be desiring ah ah
Gotta learn yeah
Eyes are always on the next goal
But space isn't there to always be filled up
It's the quiet, the downtime to breathe in my lungs

Cause I'm mortal (ah ah ah)
Defected by this form (ah ah ah)
So I beg to be tested by goddesses
Resting their heads up on pillows
Of all they've learned

Cause I'm mortal (ah ah ah)
Test me I'm mortal
And I beg to be tested by goddesses
Resting their heads up on pillows
Of all they've learned

Cause I'm mortal (ah ah ah)
Defected by this form
And I beg to be tested by goddesses
Resting their heads up on pillows
Of all they've learned

Cause I'm mortal (ah ah ah)
(Give me an A+ if I'm doing this thing right)
Defected by this form
And I'd rather be tested by goddesses
Resting their heads up on pillows
Of all they have learned
