

Fallen Angel

Melanie

He never had wings, never could fly
In most folks book he's a regular guy
Gets into trouble every now and then
But he always come round so I take him back in

He's a fallen angel
Been flyin' low for a mighty long time
Fallen angel
Heaven knows why, but he's mine

Some guys are harder to handle than others
Some men never come down
My guys a little bit different from his brothers
But he's always comin' around

He's a fallen angel
Love him to death, heaven knows why
Fallen angel
Heaven knows why, but he's mine

Fallin'

Headin' for under
Fallin'
Lighting and thunder
Callin' for help from a wishing well
Crawlin' for cover 'til I break the spell
(Fallen angel, fallen angel, fallen angel)

Most men rely on a certain set of morals
Some have a principle code
Mine can't exactly rest his laurels
But carries his own load

He's a fallen angel
Been flyin' low for a mighty long time
Fallen angel
Heaven knows why, but he's mine
Fallen angel
Love him to death, heaven knows why
Fallen angel
Heaven knows why, but he's mine
Fallen angel
Ooh, oh, heaven knows why
Fallen angel
Ooh he's mine
