

Lay Lady Lay

Melanie

Lay, lady, lay, lay across that big brass bed
Lay, lady, lay, lay across that big brass bed
'Till the break of day stay while you're still ahead

Lay, lady, lay, lay across that big brass bed
Why wait any longer for my world to begin
When I can have my cake and eat it too?
Why wait any longer for the one that I love
When the one I love is you?

Stay, lady, stay, stay with a man a while
Until the break of day let me see you make him smile
His clothes are dirty but his hands are clean
And I'm the best thing that he's ever seen

Stay, lady, stay, stay across the big brass bed
Stay, lady, stay, stay while you're still ahead

His clothes are dirty but his hands are clean

Lay, lady, lay, lay across that big brass bed
Lay, lady, lay, lay across that big brass bed
Lay, lady, lay, lay across that big brass bed
