

Window Pane

Melanie

Oh there they are again
Naked and laughing on the window pane
Did they ever see us when
We were together
Laughing much harder
Loving forever
Happily ever after...

We danced to Kitaro songs
We were like lovers
In a foreign film
We were invisible
Till we breathed and then we went
Under the covers
Sweet sleeping lovers
Dreaming forever
Happily ever after, the end
Happily ever after, the end

The moments frozen like December rain
Naked and laughing on a window pane
Careless to witness as the sun shined in
We were loving like madmen
Sweat out of season
What ever happened
Happily ever after
Happily ever after, the end
Happily ever after

Oh there they are again
Naked and laughing on the window pane
Oh there they go
Oh there they are again
Naked and laughing on the window pane
