

Silver Spoon

Melina KB

You breached our contract back when I would bow down at your feet
Ripped up the papers where we pledged undying loyalty
You think success gives you the liberty to lie and cheat
I won't do that when I take over your company

Your life is laid out by a lavish family legacy
You walk around like you're a reincarnate Kennedy
But let's be real, you wouldn't get into an Ivy League
If your last name wasn't on the library

You want a trophy wife
Baby, I'm not your type
I'll watch you from the stage
You'll barely graduate
But hey, you're a young tycoon
Go flash your credit cards
Behind that grand mirage
You'd starve without your silver spoon
Bit more than you could chew
Bit more than you could chew
Bit more than you could chew

I took your corner office with that Boston Common view
Replaced your hockey chumps with girls who'd wipe the floor with you
We lead the boardroom, you're alone at a table for two Who'd have thought, you'd beg us for an interview

It all comes back around
Look who's the big boss now
I'll watch you from the stage
You'll barely graduate
But hey, you're a young tycoon
Go flash your credit cards
Behind that grand mirage
You'd starve without your silver spoon
Bit more than you could chew
Bit more than you could chew
Bit more than you could chew
It's just a bit more than you could chew
Bit more than you could chew

Unimpressive resume
Ninety minute coffee breaks
You think you deserve a raise?
After slacking off all day
Worst employee of the month
It's 9AM and you're still drunk
Pack up your desk and face the truth
That all you've got's a silver spoon

We'll watch you from the stage
You'll fall flat on your face
But hey, you're a young tycoon
Go flash your credit cards
Behind that grand mirage
You'd starve without your silver spoon
Bit more than you could chew

I'll watch you from the stage
You'll barely graduate
But hey, you're a young tycoon
Go flash your credit cards
Behind that grand mirage
You'd starve without your silver spoon
Bit more than you could chew
Bit more than you could chew
Bit more than you could chew
It's just a bit more than you could chew
Without your silver spoon
