

Faded By Design

Melissa Etheridge

I'm undomesticated
In a hot and savage night
Oh it's not so complicated
I'm sure I'll be alright
You wanna change me, don't bother
Cause I can read the signs
Just rearrange me don't call the doctor
The cure is in my mind

Oh yeah, yeah
I'm feeling all my angels
Oh yeah, yeah
I'm faded by design

Oh it's hard to love sometimes
When I'm a stranger in my own mind
I swim through someone else's pain
My teeth in someone else's chains
I am humbled by the truth now
As it leads me on, yeah
It will take me to find the answer
All my shame is gone

Oh yeah, yeah
I'm feeling all my angels
Oh yeah, yeah
I'm faded by design

Oh yeah, yeah
I'm feeling all my angels
Oh yeah, yeah
I'm faded by design

Just a twist of fate
Swirling in the heavens
Asking me to dance
I pick up the broken pieces
I put them back into the sky
I will illuminate the sweetness
It's time for me to fly

Yeah
I'm feeling all my angels
Oh yeah, yeah
I'm faded by design
(Oh don't worry I'll be fine)

Oh yeah, yeah
I'm feeling all my angels
Oh yeah, yeah
I'm faded by design

Don't worry I will be fine
