

Monster

Melissa Etheridge

They've been calling me the monster
Ever since the day I was born
Never saying huh, don't hurt no-one
Each and every Sunday morn
I rise so strong is that so wrong
I don't mean to devastate
They say

Here come the monster everybody run
Shouting out loud and beating that drum
I'm gigantic, titanic I might cause a panic
Ready or not baby here I come

I am a monster
Full of desire full of love
I am a monster
The one that everyone is so afraid of

They been screaming at the monster
Since they got the fire inside
Every little mistake such a little twist makes
Nobody is satisfied
I rise so strong is that so wrong
I don't mean to devastate
They say

Here come the monster everybody run
Shouting out loud and beating that drum
I'm gigantic, titanic I might cause a panic
Ready or not baby here I come

I am a monster
Full of desire full of love
I am a monster
The one that everyone is so afraid of

Here come the monster everybody run
Shouting out loud and beating that drum
I'm gigantic, titanic I might cause a panic
Ready or not baby here I come

I am a monster
Full of desire full of love
I am a monster
The one that everyone is so afraid of [repeat]
