

Who Are You Waiting For

Melissa Etheridge

I did not fall when you found me I was face down
My confidence small pushed off the merry go round
Wishes and horses and all the kings' men
Could not put my heart back together again
I'm through with love isn't it clear my friend

You said
Who are you waiting for
You said
Who are you waiting for

Broken again shards of the years that I lost stuck in my skin
And the scares the least of the cost
It's obvious now that I'm damaged goods
Can't seem to find love don't know if I could

You said
You are not wrong just misunderstood

You said
Who are you waiting for hmmmm
Who are you waiting for

Now touch me my dear feel the surprise
Give me your hand open your eyes
Waiting for, who are you waiting for

I stand in the aisle I think that I've always known
There in your smile I don't have to go this alone
Here I am come to me now
Let's tell all the world I've found you
And how I've been waiting for..... yes
Who are you waiting for, who are you waiting for
who are you waiting for

Wherever you go I will go to Wherever you stay I'll stay with you
To honour and cherish from this day on My partner in life, my lover my one I've been waiting for I've been, I've been waiting for you
