

Selfish Side

Melissa Ferrick

neverending endings I make up my head is a dangerous place cause I can think myself out of anything change comes slow, I hate slow rest, it's a constant rest when you're dead, rest when you're dead they said so I will rest when I'm dead yeah cause my feet feel like the tightrope I walk yeah it splits sanity at the eye (???)

and the self I've been obsessed with well I just found out that it's just my selfish side yeah it's just my selfish side and you, you listen to my all all of my guts my words spill over to a great big landfill of lies that I created so I don't feel like I'm over

yeah it's just my selfish side

I'll leave it all on the street in the winter oh I'll leave it all in the leaves in the winter I'll leave it all on the beach in the winter my feet feel like the tightrope I walk yeah it splits sanity at the eye (???)

yeah it's just my selfish side
