

This Time of Year

Melissa Ferrick

Rain turns to snow
Northeast covers up
Let???'s let the fire burn out Head to bed
Ya but baby leave those shades up
I want to watch the night fall
I wanna feel the moon rise Right here in your arms cause it???'s i feel alive hopeful for the next but happy to leave this one behind let???'s leave this year behind Snow quiets the streets Forces trees to bow Reminding me that giving in Isn???'t always breaking down
So I???'m waiting for the car
To heat up and defrost Ya shivering and grunting I'm just Waiting for my bones to adjust
So I'm
Crunching out of the driveway
Death-grip on my steering wheel
When a smile comes over me
And I got to admit
i???'m happy i live here
i???'m happy i live here
Aren???'t you happy you live here Baby leave those shades up
