

Drinking Song

Mellowdrone

I swear to god on my brothers lover, I'm telling the truth
I'm assuming you don't have another way of getting the proof
I'm in charge of this party, I'll seduce the big beast
But before that...

Can I have some more? Just a little more
I think I'll tell you when I've had quite enough

I swear to god it wasn't my fault, I ended up here
I swear to god it wasn't my fault, I'm taking up space
Come and feed you some cake, I have no shame in pushing
So I just ask...

Can I have some more? Just a little more
I think I'll tell you when I've had quite enough

I'll save us

Can I have some more? Just a little more
I think I'll tell you when I've had quite enough
