

Love was young and complicated
We were not the same
If that's the way it should be
It's not a matter of you and me
And I say
Love is a strange way to deny
Teenager broken angeleyes
I remember the words were in the sky
Teenager broken angeleyes
Out of time and out of chances
Much too far away
If that's the way it should go
It's just a twist of things we know
And I say
Love was a strange way to deny
Teenager broken angeleyes
I remember the words were in the sky
Teenager broken angeleyes
Love was young and complicated
We were not the same
If that's the way it should be
It's not a matter of you and me
And I say
And I say
Love is a strange way to deny
Teenager broken angeleyes
I remember the words were in the sky
Teenager broken angeleyes
I say
Love is a strange way to deny
Teenager broken angeleyes
I remember the words were in the sky
Teenager broken angeleyes
