

She's The Girl

Melody Club

She's on the cover of a magazine
A show face if you know what I mean
And those eyes so shocking blue uh-uh

You're never gonna be her number one
A deadly case of hit and run
She never takes things out of the blue uh-uh

And here comes her lover
And she's a first class on the cover
And that's when it all makes sense to you
She just don't belong with you

Here comes another
Another boy who will discover
Find out what you already knew
She's got a different point of view

She's on the cover and you know her name
Sunglasses in the pouring rain
Everyday she wears something new uh-uh

You're never gonna be her number one

A deadly case of hit and run
She never takes things out of the blue uh-uh

And here comes her lover
And she's a first class on the cover
And that's when it all makes sense to you
She just don't belong with you

Here comes another
Another boy who will discover
Find out what you already knew
She's got a different point of view

Here comes her lover
And she's a first class on the cover
And that's when it all makes sense to you
She just don't belong to you

Here comes another
Another boy who will discover
Find out what you already knew
She's got a different point of view
